LOYOLA WARRIORS HOST GEORGIAN ICEMEN

Loyola Warriors, concurrently atop the OSLAA standings with a one point advance over University of Quebec-Three Rivers Patriots, play their last league encounter before Christmas Friday night (December 11th) at 8:00 P.M. when they play host to crosstown arch-rivals Sir George Williams University Georgians. This is their initial contest this season.

Although the Georgians are a lowly fifth in the OSL circuit, they can always be counted on to give the Warriors a stiff battle. Sir George is one of only two teams that have beaten the West-Enders since they started playing in their new rink in November of 1966. Last year, Loyola won all three clashes between the clubs, by scores of 5-2, 7-1 and 8-2.

The Warriors are now 5-1-1 in league play and 9-1-2 overall up to now. Last weekend they swept a doubleheader from RMC Redmen to regain the top spot in the OSL. Their most impressive games to date, however, have been a 1-1 tie and a 5-3 victory over the defending national intercollegiate champions, the University of Toronto Varsity Blues.

Dave Draper will be going for victory number 85 on Friday. In 3½ seasons at Loyola the former St. Mike's and Michigan Tech standout has amassed a record of 84 wins, 17 losses and six ties.

Leading scorer on the team after 12 games is defenceman Bill Doyle, who has scored 4 goals and 18 assists for 22 points. Doyle, a four year veteran, was out at California Golden Seals training camp this year, and this must be considered a factor in his early season success.

Ron Riley is the team's top goalgetter with 11, Doyle leads in assists with 18, while Mike Thomassin leads in penalties with 44 minutes.
